11. SELLER'S DEFAULT. The Seller shall take all reasonable steps to minimise and prevent any delay to the delivery of the Goods. If the Seller fails to deliver the Goods to the delivery site nominated by the Buyer by the Date for Delivery, the Buyer shall, without prejudice to any of its other rights pursuant to the Purchase Order or otherwise, be entitled to:

- (a) refuse to accept Goods delivered to or left at the delivery site in respect of which property therein has not passed to the Buyer;

However, if agreement cannot be reached, the Buyer shall determine the price for the variation and its effect on the Date for Delivery of the Goods.
- (b) The Seller shall not vary the work under the Purchase Order or any condition thereof, except as directed and approved by the Buyer in writing. No variation shall invalidate the Purchase Order.

- (i) Where the manufacture, creation or compilation of the Goods occurs over an extended period, the Buyer may, at its sole discretion, withhold from any progress payment which may otherwise be due to the Seller pursuant to this clause, retention monies not exceeding 10% of the value of the progress payment, and the total of which does not exceed 10% of the price of the Purchase Order. The retention monies are to be paid to the Seller on the Buyer's acceptance of the Goods and are for the purpose of securing the Seller's proper performance of the Purchase Order.

15. SET OFF. Without limiting the Buyer's rights under the Purchase Order or at common law or in equity, the Buyer may set off against payments due to the Seller (including retention monies) any monies due to the Buyer or claimed to be due to the Buyer under the Purchase Order or any other contract between the Seller and the Buyer.
